Celebrating 50 Years of Family, Fun and Food

For All You Need

Retail complex rounds up a plethora of experiences

Whether you're here for food, fashion or entertainment, you are bound to be impressed by all Miracle Mile Shops at Planet Hollywood offers.

If you're stepping in to explore fashion, you'll have no trouble finding more outfits than you could possibly ever wear in the 150 shops along the 1.2-mile complex. For casual wear, head to shops like Crazy Shirts, where the islands land and where all your floral fantasies can be made real. They're more than just floral, though; there are all manner of nature-themed shirts and twill pants, plus cocoa-dyed shorts, shirts and more.

For casual footwear, try Foot Locker and House of Hoops by Foot Locker, where the hottest sneakers are ready for you. And if you don't find it at Foot Locker, you're sure to find it at Journeys, plus backpacks, head gear and apparel, or at Shoe Palace, to outfit the whole family.

Since you are in Las Vegas, there's nothing wrong with matching your glamorous aura to the neon vibes of the city. Find high-end women's fashions in shops like White House Black Market, eclectic trendy dresses in Francesca's, men's and women's apparel in separate One Monarchy locations, bold designs in Desigual and smooth men's styles in Original Penguin.

In the center of the shopping complex is The Lost City Show, where 3D projection video turns the interior facades of Miracle Mile Shops into a visual exploration of the natural environment, with waterfalls, growing flora, lava and more. The sounds of thunder, rain and nature help bring the surreal effects to life and change the stone facades of V Theater into a living, breathing cityscape. Plus, it's free to view, with shows every hour on the hour beginning at 10 a.m.

After combing the shops, food and drink are in order—Mexican food fans are sure to delight at both Cabo Wabo Cantina and Rosa Mexicano. Both have patios facing the Strip (so you can do a little people-watching). Other options include Flights, where drinks and eats come in threes, and Blondie's Sports Bar & Grill for casual American fare and a plethora of beverages. Hit up Garrett Popcorn Shops for a snack on the way out—CheeseCorn rocks. —Nina King
